April 19-21, 2001

Colorectal Surgery Issues & Updates; Piedmont Society Meeting

Sanibel Harbor, Fort Myers, FL

Conference Director: Frank G. Opelka, MD

Program Coordinator: Brandi Orgeron

This conference is targeted to General and Colorectal Surgeons and Residents and it provides a forum for disseminating information and for encouraging open discussion between the society members and the academic surgeons. The small forum promotes the dialogue surrounding the controversial treatment and diagnostic issues. The Alton Ochsner Medical Foundation designates this educational activity for a maximum of 7 hours of Category 1 credit towards the AMA Physician's Recognition Award. The registration fee for this conference is $200.00.

June 8, 2001

18th Annual Dr. John C. Weed Obstetrics and Gynecology Resident Research Seminar

Conference Director: Michael Finan, MD

Program Coordinator: Brandi Orgeron

Monroe Hall, Ochsner Hospital Campus, New Orleans, LA

This conference is an opportunity for our residents to present data which they have accumulated in their areas of interest. This is coupled with presentations by a guest lecturer encompassing a broad spectrum of topics in the field of obstetrics and gynecology. This conference is free of charge.

July 16-21, 2001

23rd Annual New Orleans Internal Medicine Board Review

Co-Sponsors: LSUMC Foundation and Tulane University Medical Center

Conference Co-Directors: Edward Frohlich, MD, Russell Klein, MD, and Kevin Krane, MD

Program Coordinator: Danielle DeGrushe
Hyatt Regency Hotel, New Orleans, LA

This board review is designed for internists as a comprehensive review of internal medicine. It is primarily a preparation for taking the American Board of Internal Medicine Certification and Re-Certification Examinations or as a review and update for Board-Certified physicians. In addition, practicing primary care physicians (to include internists and family practitioners) may elect to use this review as an efficient method to update their internal medicine knowledge and improve their skills. For registration information, please contact Tulane University Health Sciences Center-CCE at (800) 588-5300 or visit the New Orleans Internal Medicine Board Review website at www.noimbr.org
