

CME Calendar

For more information about these events, call Ochsner's CME Department at 800 778-9353 or 504 842-3702.

Online registration is available at our NEW WEBSITE: www.ochsner.org/cme.

April 25-27, 2002

11th Annual Endocrinology Update During the New Orleans Jazz and Heritage Festival

Conference Director: Amelita Basa, MD

Meeting Planner: Brandi Orgeron

Hyatt Regency Hotel, New Orleans, LA

This conference is designed for endocrinologists, internists, and family practice physicians as an update in new therapies that have been or will soon be available to physicians in many areas of endocrinology. A combination of lectures, question/answer sessions, audiovisuals, handouts, and workshops are used to communicate the educational objectives. This conference is being conducted in classroom style seating. The Ochsner Clinic Foundation designates this educational activity for a maximum of 17 hours in category 1 credit towards the AMA Physician's Recognition Award. Each physician should claim only those hours of credit that he/she actually spent in the educational activity.

April 26-28, 2002

2002 Pediatric Update for the Primary Care Physician(s)

The Wyndham at Canal Place, New Orleans, LA

Co-sponsors: Tulane University and Ochsner Clinic Foundation

This educational activity is designed for and will be of interest to pediatricians, family physicians, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, nurses and allied health professionals specializing in the care of children. The Tulane and Ochsner pediatric faculty and esteemed outside speakers will provide up-to-date information on a variety of topics including emergency room problems and diagnostic problems in everyday practice. The format will allow ample opportunity for the participants to interact with the speakers during the Q & A sessions and the smaller 1 1/2 hour case-based discussions. For registration information, please contact Tulane University, Center for Continuing Education at (504) 588-5466 or (800) 588-5300,

April 26-27, 2002

24-Hour Physiology: Clinical Medicine and Sleep Conference

Conference Director: Elizabeth Bouldin, MD

Meeting Planner: Shannon Bonnetcarre

Hyatt Regency Hotel, New Orleans, LA

This conference will present topics of interest regarding the impact of normal and disordered sleep on various organ systems. Special emphasis will be given to the physiology of the systems and the changes they undergo during sleep. The target audience includes: internists, surgeons, sleep medicine professionals, endocrinologists, and respiratory/pulmonary physicians. Registration Fee $175.00 for physicians, $100.00 for other health care professionals. The Ochsner Clinic Foundation is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians. The Ochsner Clinic Foundation designates this educational activity for a maximum of 7 hours in category 1 credit towards the AMA Physician's Recognition Award. Each physician should claim only those hours of credit that he/she actually spent in the educational activity.

May 24, 2002

20th Annual John C. Weed Obstetrics and Gynecology Resident Research Seminar

Conference Director: Michael Finan, MD

Meeting Planner: Brandi Orgeron

Brent House Conference Center, Ochsner Clinic Foundation, New Orleans, LA

This conference is an opportunity for our residents to present data that they have accumulated in their areas of interest. This is coupled with presentations by a guest lecturer. There is no registration fee for this conference. The Ochsner Clinic Foundation is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to sponsor continuing medical education for physicians. The Ochsner Clinic Foundation designates this educational activity for a maximum of 5.5 hours in category 1 credit towards the AMA Physician's Recognition Award. Each physician should claim only those hours he/she actually spent in the educational activity. A certificate of attendance will be mailed within two weeks after the course.